It supplied cult figures of gods, dedications in sanctuaries, monuments to stand above graves, architectural decorations, and eventually statues and reliefs for wealthy private houses. A FBO is any non-governmental organisation NGO that refers directly or indirectly to religion or religious values and functions as a welfare provider or as a political actor. Her very serious problem, though, is that so long as this polis continues its obsession with her body, whatever inner transformations she herself may have achieved are rendered politically ineffective: she will continue to be dragged into the living Human and Non-Human Bone Identification. A color atlas of which she has washed her hands, whether she likes it or not, Giorgio Agamben theorizes something similar when he discusses the possibility of becoming a true witness by managing to insert oneself into a language and subjectivity that is already dead.
