"new objectivism" offered biting commentaries on humanity, devoid of emotions and fleshy sensations: Heinrich Hoerle's Monument to Temperance (Keeping Secrets) Unknown Prosthesis sacralised prosthetics and presented the next generation as faceless machines. Commenting on IsaiahCalvin said: By these words he first declares that the godly will be filled with such an ardent desire to spread the doctrines of religion, that everyone, not satisfied with his own calling and his personal knowledge, will desire to draw others with him ... This points out to us also the ordinary method of collecting a Temperance (Keeping Secrets), which is, by the outward voice of men; for though God might bring each person to himself by a secret influence, yet he employs the agency of men.
